Course Description:

Participation in this two-day training to give dispute resolution professionals the knowledge and skills necessary to serve as parenting coordinators. This training will also describe the interventions helpful in reducing parental conflict, focusing on understanding the psychological dynamics of the parents and the impact of the conflict on the children. The parenting coordination process, structure and roles will be described, emphasizing the practical aspects of serving as a parenting coordinator. The use of parenting coordination in cases with allegations of domestic violence, alienation and child abuse will be discussed as well as the types of cases that are not appropriate for parenting coordination. This training will also discuss the ethical issues inherent in this role and present an overview of standards of practice.

Faculty:

Dr. Arnie Shienvold is a founding partner of Riegler Shienvold & Associates, a group of psychologists and social workers who work together to provide comprehensive, quality care for individuals and families. The firm, established in 1980, is located in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, and offers a wide range of services including mediation, custody evaluations, group facilitation, organizational consultations, and of course, psychotherapy, and counseling. Dr. Shienvold earned his Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy degrees in clinical psychology from the University of Alabama where he specialized in child clinical psychology. He completed his internship at the Ohio State University Hospital.
